A Power of Attorney is a document that gives someone legal authority to act for another person. Please be aware that the Maryland General and Limited Power of Attorney Act has been amended and new power of attorney laws and forms were enacted starting on October 1, 2020.

An Advance Directive is a document describing what health care you want or do not want after you can no longer choose because of a medical emergency or other event.

Presented are select resources focusing on the issues of power of attorney and advance directive.
